

From: Dguildner@aol.com@inetgw
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/14/02 3:31pm
Subject: Microsoft settlement

I wonder how many millions is being spent of taxpayers money to continue the case against Microsoft. Is the government really concerned about monopoly now after they have made a ruling, or is it just politics and competitors getting their state governments to continue on for the special interest of those companies? I am weary of it. Let it go and let the people benefit rather than use taxpayers money to pay for the competitors wish lists.

Diane Guildner